

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Myths and Facts about Food (RLAC)

Join us to learn more about the role of nutrition after a cancer diagnosis. We'll discuss some common misperceptions versus facts about diet and well-being after cancer. This lecture will address questions about sugar, red meat, weight management, and dealing with side effects of current or previous cancer treatments.

Audience

This support group is open to the community.