

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Cancer Straight Talk: How Does Cycling Fight Cancer? Dave Linn & Ethan Zohn on the Power of Cycle for Survival (Podcast)

Every year, tens of thousands of people across the country hop on stationary bikes to raise money for rare cancer research through Cycle for Survival, MSK's largest fundraising event of the year. With the help of founding partner Equinox, Cycle for Survival has raised nearly $300 million since 2007. But how does pedaling raise money? And who is that money helping? In this episode, Dr. Diane Reidy-Lagunes sits down with the cofounder of Cycle for Survival Dave Linn, as well as rare cancer survivor and one of the movement's biggest cheerleaders (and actual winner of TV's Survivor: Africa), Ethan Zohn, to hear about their personal cancer stories and the power of Cycle for Survival.

Go to www.mskcc.org/pe/cancer_straight_talk_cycle_for_survival to listen to this podcast episode.

For more information and to ask a question, please visit mskcc.org/podcast.

If you have any questions, contact a member of your healthcare team directly. If you're a patient at MSK and you need to reach a provider after 5:00 p.m., during the weekend, or on a holiday, call 212-639-2000.

For more resources, visit www.mskcc.org/pe to search our virtual library.

Cancer Straight Talk: How Does Cycling Fight Cancer? Dave Linn & Ethan Zohn on the Power of Cycle for Survival (Podcast) - Last updated on October 14, 2022

All rights owned and reserved by Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center